USB CALLS PUBLIC WORKERS TO RALLY AGAINST NATIONAL STABILITY LAW OF RENZI GOVERNMENT.

, 15/10/2015

TOMORROW MANY HUNDREDS OF PUBLIC WORKERS WILL BE IN ROME FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY TO DEMONSTRATE AGAINST NEW ITALIAN STABILITY LAW, WRITTEN UNDER THE PROMPT OF EUROPEAN UNION.

With this law Renzi Government introduces the closure of many public enterprises, with the consequences of thousands of layoffs, cut other billion appropriation for public health to promote private health, does not provide money for new public collective bargain after six year of block , keeping the age of retirement at 67, etc.

On Saturday 17th National Council of USB Public Employees will decide for a new general strike in the public offices all over the country in November.
