WFTU solidarity statement on the IKEA workers strike in Milan, Italy

The World Federation of Trade Unions representing 92 million workers in the 5 continents, expresses its solidarity to the 2-hours strike of the IKEA workers, which took place on 28th November 2017, in Milan, Italy.

The strike was organized against the dismissal of a female worker who is single parent of a child with special needs. The excuse for the inhuman dismissal was the delay of her arrival in the work despite the fact that she had come to an agreement with the company administration to start her work 2 hours later than the ordinary working - times.

The international class oriented trade union movement salute the solidarity shown by the rest IKEA workers and joins its voice with them, demanding immediate re-employment of the employee and respect of the agreement for her working-times in the future.
