Solidarity with USB Italy Actions in Defense of the Right to Strike

Nazionale, 11/04/2019

PAME expresses its support to the activities of the USB Italy Trade Union in Defense of the Right to go on Strike.

USB denounced the decision of the Government Commission to prohibit the Strike that the Union had called for April 12th. Responding to the ban, the USB calls on three-day actions to defend the Right to Strike with Demonstrations across Italy on April 12 and strike action in various sectors over the next weeks.

In each country the anti-workers' attack is being promoted in parallel with the attack on democratic and trade union rights, the right of workers to go on Strike. The class movement of Greece stands by the workers of Italy in their struggle to defend their labor and trade union rights.

PAME denounces the banning of the strike on April 12 and supports the mobilizations of Italian workers.
